Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., to be Guest Speaker at Next Shrine Luncheon

To Address Nobility October 26 on
"Affairs in Washington"

THE NEXT luncheon of Aleppo Temple to be held at the Boston City Club, Tuesday, October 26, 1937, bids fair to be one of the most important and instructive since the inception of these popular noon-day luncheons.

Senator HENRY CABOT LODGE, JR.

The speaker of this occasion, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., is one of the most interesting and popular figures in the Nation's Capitol today. The youngest Senator ever to be elected to the United States Senate from Massachusetts will address the members of Aleppo on "Affairs in Washington."

Senator Lodge's subject would seem most timely, with the people's interest being held by the events occurring in Washington these days.

He is doubly qualified to discuss a subject so vitally interesting to the public at this time, as he has coupled with his political experience, a knowledge gained through his direct connections with the press. Senator Lodge is a former newspaper reporter, and was on the editorial staff of the Boston Transcript and the New York Herald Tribune. He later represented both of these papers in Washington as their Washington correspondent.

Senator Lodge is respected by citizens from all walks of life, regardless of party affiliations.

This will be the first time that he has made a local address since he was elected to the Senate.

The luncheon starts at 12:30 P. M. sharp. The committee expects to have the usual large number of door prizes to distribute to the lucky.

THE SEPTEMBER LUNCHEON

THE first of the current series of Shrine luncheons was held on Tuesday, September 28, at the Boston City Club. The feature of the occasion was an address by Noble Dr. Samuel M. Lindsay, on the subject of "The Present World Crisis."

Dr. Lindsay held the attention of the 300 Nobles present, for nearly an hour, with his stirring talk on the affairs and conditions in the leading countries, including Spain, China, Italy and Germany.

At the conclusion of his address Noble Doctor Lindsay was given a spontaneous burst of applause. It is certainly a compliment that several members said the talk was so interesting that they wished he had taken more time.

To those who have not attended these luncheons in the past we wish to say that they are missing something worthwhile. We suggest that they come to the next one on October 26 and see if we are not right.

BOWLING NEWS

By VAIL K. HAAK

Associate Editor

BY THE time you read this column another year of Aleppo Bowling will be under way. At a meeting of the officers and Captains of the various teams at the City Club Wednesday, September 29, it was decided to start the season Thursday, October 7.

This column has advertised for new bowlers but the response has not smothered us, as yet. Due to the lack of replies the officers have decided to bowl at the City Club again this year because they can accommodate 6 teams.

If you want to be put on the mailing list do not hesitate to write in because there is always room for more members. The bigger the league the better, because we can always make arrangements somewhere else to provide our wants.

You notice that we are to bowl Thursday nights even though we voted at our banquet last year for Wednesday. The reason is that the City Club alleys are only available on that night.

Fall in line as soon as possible, because the first month will be just tune up strings, whereas the first of November we will swing into competitive matches. Hurry — Hurry — Hurry and send your name in so that you can be assigned to a team before November 1.

Don't forget the prizes will be bigger and better than heretofore, also you will derive a lot of pleasure bowling with nobility.

OLDEST SHRINER PASSES ON

NOBLE Samuel T. Goodwin of Lynn, an ardent Shriner and regular attendant at Shrine ceremonials, passed away August 29, 1937, in his 95th year.

He was born in Milton Mills, N. H., and later moved to Lynn where he conducted a florist business for many years, retiring in 1898.

Noble Goodwin was well known in Masonic circles in Lynn and Boston. He was a member of Golden Fleece Lodge, A. F. & A. M.; Sutton Royal Arch Chapter; the Scottish Rite Bodies of Boston and Aleppo Temple, which he joined in 1907.

A VETERAN NOBLE VISITS

NOBLE A. Lincoln Phillips, a member of Lu Lu Temple of Philadelphia, and a brother-in-law of our Trustee, Noble Frank L. Nagle, visited our headquarters recently and expressed himself as greatly pleased with our lay-out.

Noble Phillips is a member of the Veterans Corps of Philadelphia, having been a Mason for over fifty years.

circles. His affiliations included Mt. Lebanon Lodge, A. F. & A. M., and Union Chapter, R. A. M., both of Laconia, N. H., and Coeur de Leon Commandery Knights Templars of Charlestown. He was a Representative to the Imperial Council of the Shrine in 1931, 1932 and 1933.

In 1915 he organized the Greenleaf Company, and as head of his own advertising agency successfully developed many of the major advertising accounts in this section. He was active in the business until his death. He was also a familiar figure in other business and social organizations, being a member of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, Exchange Club, Advertising Club of Boston, Boston Athletic Association and Belmont Spring Country Club.

Funeral services were held at The First Baptist Church, Beacon and Park Streets, Brookline. Noble Doctor Samuel M. Lindsay, pastor of the church, officiated. Among the honorary pall bearers were Past Potentates George A. Shackford, Walter W. Morrison, Samuel C. L. Haskell, Roy A. Faye, Fred E. Bolton, Clarence J. McKenzie and Frank A. North.

Potentate Harry G. Pollard headed a delegation of the officers of Aleppo Temple including Nobles Charles T. Cahill, James J. Curry, Willard P. Lombard, Frank W. Morrill and Harvey B. Leggee. Ushers, all members of Aleppo Temple, under the direction of High Priest and Prophet, Robert G. Wilson, Jr., were: Nobles Walter M. Smith, Jr., W. Leslie Dixon, Dr. A. M. Drury, Fred K. Rogers, Willard H. Stevens, Thomas W. MacMechan, Henry E. Keough and Frank B. Ells.

He leaves a wife, the former Athala Tuthill of New Britain, Connecticut, and a sister, Mrs. Robert F. Blake of Alma, California.

Burial was at Meredith, New Hampshire.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST PHILANTHROPY

THE SHRINE Hospital Board supplied us with the following information regarding the Shrine Hospital work, which we believe will be very interesting to our readers.

There are in active operation Fifteen Shriners' Hospitals — twelve in the United States, two in Canada and one in Honolulu. Our investment in Hospital Buildings, land and equipment, as of June 30, 1937 is $6,064,445.65.

More than 60,000 crippled children have been cured or materially benefited by these Hospitals since 1922. Of this number approximately 25,000 were bed patients, the remainder being cared for in the Out-Patient Departments. During the last fiscal year ending March 31, 1937, 3,534 children were discharged after being admitted to the Shriners' Hospitals.

Our Hospitals serve only the poor, regardless of race, creed or color. No child whose parents can pay for treatment elsewhere may become a patient in any of our Units. Any boy or girl under fourteen years of age, of normal mentality and in need of orthopaedic treatment may become a patient, providing applicants can be cured or materially benefited.

We urge every Noble of the Mystic Shrine to pay a visit to one of the Shriners' Hospitals, and we feel certain that he will never surrender his membership in the Shrine after seeing for himself "THE WORLD'S GREATEST PHILANTHROPY."

SCOTTISH RITE NEWS

By NOBLE HOWARD A. FLANDERS
Associate Editor

THE Scottish Rite Bodies become active this month. Boston Lafayette Lodge of Perfection held its regular meeting October 1. Giles F. Yates Council Princes of Jerusalem held its regular meeting October 8. Mount Olivet Chapter of Rose Croix holds its regular meeting October 15 and Massachusetts Consistory holds its regular meeting October 22.

It is hoped that the members having returned refreshed from their summer vacations will manifest sufficient interest to attend these meetings in large numbers. It will be a great inspiration to the officers of the various bodies to have large numbers at the meetings.

Noble John P. Dodge, Assistant Commissary of Massachusetts Consistory, is confined to the hospital in Rockland, Maine. His speedy recovery is hoped for.

LETTERS FROM THE NOBILITY

"Noble Harvey B. Leggee, Editor,
ALEPPO NEWS.
Boston, Massachusetts.

"Dear Noble:

"Am I sore? ? I don't know who this Noble J. F. Allen of Dorchester is, BUT!

"I have lived and had my habitation in this neck of the woods for twenty-four years and have tried to live a decent life and sometimes, at least, tell the truth. More than that I have been a member of Aleppo Temple since 1912, and have read each issue of the News. I usually believe anything and everything published — but this bluefish story is too much as told by Noble Allen. I have fished for bluefish many times and honestly and in truth, caught some. I have found at times a dozen fine oysters and some Little Neck clams (for an appetizer), in a bluefish, but never a cocktail or a drink.

"Honestly, Noble Leggee: Do you believe Allen's story? It is too much for me. I can't leave Aleppo Temple, but I can get out of Dorchester, for as a story teller, Allen has got me licked. I still am 100 per cent loyal to Aleppo, even if I mildly question Noble Allen.

"Respectfully yours,

"NOBLE W. H. THAYER."

"Dear Noble Leggee:

"I joined Aleppo Temple in February 1895. Does that make me an 'Old Timer'?

"My communication with Aleppo and the good fellows I have met, have been pleasant memories. I will never forget when I was East. The May ceremonials, with the array of strawberry shortcake — acres of it. I tell you there is only one Temple, that is 'Aleppo'. They know how and then some.

"I received a card on my eightieth birthday from the Officers and members of Palestine Lodge of Everett, Massachusetts. It makes one feel good to be remembered. I have been a member of the Lodge for forty-nine years, it will be fifty next May.

"Give my best wishes to Walter Morrison, and all of the boys.

"Fraternally yours,

"NOBLE JAMES BEAN,
"Los Angeles, California."

"Dear Harvey:

"I thought it might interest the readers of the ALEPPO NEWS to hear that Noble Robert Bonner Palmer, a Life Member of Aleppo, now living at 2300 North 38th Street, Seattle, Washington, called on me a short time ago. He was on his first visit here in twenty years. He gets a great kick out of the ALEPPO NEWS, and spoke of it.

"Noble Edward William Dowell, also a Life Member of Aleppo is up here on a visit from Balboa, Canal Zone. He thinks there is only one Shrine Temple in America, and that is 'Aleppo.'

"I also want to tell you that Noble Rowswell's little poem printed in the August issue of the News, hit me between the eyes, and I am going to try to carry the thought the rest of my life. I have heard a number of Nobles also speak of reading it.

"I am working on an applicant and hope to get his application for the November 19th ceremonial.

"Yours in the Faith,

"NOBLE JIM MOOREHEAD."

"Dear Noble:

"I noticed in the last issue of the News, a fish story by Noble J. F. Allen, in which he gives my name as a witness to his veracity.

"I beg to disclaim any responsibility in this respect what-so-ever. Compared to this man, the Baron was a rank amateur. I do not believe that Noble Allen ever caught a fish in his life as he is mortally afraid of water and to my personal knowledge has not been in contact with it for fifty years. The story is undoubtedly a filament of his imagination caused by imbibing 'Snake Bite Cure.'

"If you will kindly pass this letter on to Noble Morrison he will endorse every word that I have said.

"Yours very truly,

"NOBLE F. A. PICKERING,
"Lawrence, Massachusetts."

"Dear Sir:

"I have noticed in your last two monthly issues, mention of card numbers. Reference will reveal mine as No. 306.

"If this occasions to be lower than any that have been mentioned among the Old Timers, I thought that word of its identity may be of interest.

"Very truly yours,

"FRANK P. BUBIER."

Editor's Note: Noble Bubier joined Aleppo Temple December 27, 1894.

"I LOVE A PARADE"

WE PLAYED "hokey" from the News last month, but evidently no one noticed that fact except our debonair Drum Major, Noble Lew Carpenter, who wanted to know "how come there was no band column in the last issue." However, like the proverbial bad penny we have returned.

The first rehearsal of the season was held on Monday, September 13, with a fairly good attendance. Ill. Potentate Harry G. Pollard was present and outlined the proposed activities for the fall and winter months. One that appealed strongly to the boys was the big Shrine gathering at Providence on October 9. The uniformed units will be there in all their glory, to participate in the big parade and the shore dinner, especially the shore dinner, as we understand there will be plenty of lobsters (the edible kind we mean).

The Governor sent an invitation for the band to turn out in the big Constitution Day parade in Boston on September 17, and promised to give us a place at the head of the first division. This caused a lot of discussion, pro and con (principally "con"). All the boys "Love a Parade" but the only question was whether we could turn out a sufficient number to make a decent showing, the boys being scattered all over the state. It was finally voted to accept the invitation, and the band turned out with 90 men in line, which was a darned good showing on such a short notice. Believe it or not, we won the second prize with 76 points—the winner of the first prize had 80 points. Not bad considering.

We received a post card from Noble Gus Simmons, sergeant of the trombone section, from Freemont, Wis., 1315 miles away. Gus says it was hot but is now very cold, and that Green Bay has as much swell as salty Boston Harbor.

When the new police boat, the Michael H. Crowley was launched at Lawley's shipyard recently, that sea-going cop, Noble Lieutenant Carl Perry, was in charge of the musical program. The Police band played "Tim Toolin" one of the former Supt. Crowley's favorites.

ATTENTION! All you young Nobles who have any musical ability and would like to join the band. The band leader is looking for new recruits, and can use some clarinet, cornet and baritone players. So if you would like to join this Shrine band communicate as soon as possible with Walter M. Smith Jr., Leader, 209 Massachusetts Ave., Boston, Room 38; or interview him at the band room, 97 Huntington Ave., any Monday evening between 7.00 and 9.30.

We have a number of members on the sick list at present. Noble Harry Marchant has been ill for several months; Noble Bob Pearson, of the drum section, is confined to his home by severe illness, and Noble Jean La Londe, of the bass section had a stroke and is very ill.

We regret to announce the death of Noble Louis Harlow, who passed to the Celestial Oasis on September 19. Funeral services were held at Manchester, N. H., on Tuesday, September 21, and a large delegation of the Nobles of the band attended the services.

DEATH TAKES FORMER SHRINE BAND LEADER

NOBLE Louis Harlow of East Milton, who, under the direction of Past Potentate Walter W. Morrison, organized the Aleppo Temple Shrine Band in 1916, passed away in Manchester, New Hampshire, Sunday, September 19, 1937, at the age of 69.

He was brought to a Manchester hospital from his summer home in Andover, New Hampshire, where he was stricken ill.

Noble Harlow conducted the Shrine Band from 1916 to 1929. The original organization was called the Aleppo Drum Corps, consisting of a group of Nobles who were enthusiastic drummers. He kept adding instruments to this group until the Aleppo Temple Shriner's Band became known as the largest fraternal band in the Country.

Well-known to thousands of Boston public school children for his annual demonstrations of old-time military drumming, Noble Harlow learned to drum from his father at the age of 5. By the time he was 15, he had gathered together a group of High School friends into a "Fife and Drum Corps," which he taught and led.

Noble Harlow was born in Plymouth, Massachusetts, and had lived in East Milton since 1900. For many years he operated a hardware business in Boston, from which he retired to become associated with his son Lewis A. Harlow, in the Boston school music bureau.

He was a member of Macedonian Blue Lodge, A. F. & A. M.; St. Stephen's Royal Arch Chapter; Boston Commandery, Knights Templar, and Aleppo Temple.

LAST month we reported in this column the injury suffered by Lieut. Roger Beckman of the second platoon; and now comes to light a notable act of heroism performed by Dr. Beckman, in saving the lives of three men in Ipswich Bay, September 19. According to the newspapers, Noble Beckman, while out in his 38-foot power boat, passed a party of three men who were fishing from a sloop off Plum Island, and they appeared to be inexperienced mariners. Later, when a squall came up, he had a premonition that all might not be well with the three young men, so he turned about and after cruising in the rain for an hour, finally located them clinging to their capsized boat and in an exhausted condition. Roger rescued them, provided them with warm clothing and later landed them safely at the Annisquam Yacht Club. Not a whisper has been heard of the act from the modest life saver, but we here accord him honorable mention and commendation for his worthy performance.

With the opening of the various Masonic Bodies for another year we have reports of activity by a number of the patrol members. Nobles Alec Campbell and George Weeks were installing officers at St. Matthews R. A. Chapter. Ex. Lester Boyce of the 5th Platoon was installed as High Priest for the second year, and Ex. Alec Campbell was installed as Secretary.

Lieut. Leslie Dixon was installed as Master of Isaac Parker Lodge of Waltham, September 21, in a semi-public installation, attended by 350. It was a social occasion enlivened with entertainment and followed by dancing. This is the Third Masonic Body over which Leslie has served as presiding officer.

At the election of St. Omer Commandery, September 13, five members of the patrol were elected to office. Noble Russ Lynn of the second platoon, becomes Captain General; Lieut. Bill Sharpe becomes Junior Warden; Nobles Al Thorley of the second platoon and Artie Wood of the Altar platoon will serve as Prelates, and Noble Alec Campbell is a trustee of funds.

We welcome to the 5th platoon a new member, Noble Fred Seaton, a salesman of Swampscott. Noble Seaton is a member of Wayfarers' Lodge, Swampscott Chapter and Olivet Commandery. He is an ex-navy man and has served seven years on the drill team of the American Legion.

Noble Andy McCulloch is transferred from the second to the first platoon — he'll have to take longer steps with those big boys.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Taylor, mother of "Scratch" Taylor of the first platoon, in her critical illness at the Forest Hills Hospital. Serious illness and hospitalization have been the lot of several members of the family during the past year and friends were shocked to learn of this critical injury to Mrs. Taylor. We hope for her rapid recovery and early return to her family.

It is our duty to record the death of Noble George H. Battis, long a member of the Altar platoon. Noble Battis died suddenly at his home in West Medford, September 5, 1937. He had been an insurance broker for many years, and a member of Baalbec Lodge, St. John's Chapter, William Parkman Commandery, and Massachusetts Consistory. He was a loyal and popular member of the patrol and had a host of friends in the insurance world. Services held in Baalbec Lodge were attended by a representative number from the Patrol.

WORCESTER COUNTY SHRINERS

By WESTON RUSSELL

PRESIDENT Andrew M. Goff of the Worcester County Shrine Club spent a month at his Canadian fishing lodge, and made two trips to Maine and one journey to New York during the vacation season. Andy attended the Annual Outing of Aleppo Temple on August 25. When interviewed, he said, "It was a real treat to join with such a gathering of good fellows. I congratulate Potentate Harry G. Pollard upon furnishing Shrinedom such a perfect outing."

Noble Carl S. Herrmann of Wellesley Hills, and his son, Carl B., returned in September from a trip to California via the Panama Canal. Noble Herrmann is President of New England Power Association. The son will return to Colgate University this Fall for his sophomore year.

Noble Victor E. Runo enjoys bowling during the winter season. Noble Runo has been known to roll a score of 125 with the candle pins upon occasion.

First Vice-President Joseph C. DeWolf of the Worcester County Shrine Club vacationed by motor in Maine last month.

Noble David L. Day, known the country over in musical circles, attended the annual Music Merchants Convention held in New York City this summer. Noble Day belongs to the Shrine Temple in New London County, Connecticut, but has many friends among Boston Nobles, as he made his home here for many years. He is President of the Bacon Banjo Company, Inc., of Groton, Connecticut. (New London County is now under the jurisdiction of Sphinx Temple, Hartford.)

Past President William C. Towns of the Worcester County Shrine Club has moved to Boston.

Cong. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of North Attleboro, one of the minority leaders in Congress, was the house guest of Noble Cong. Pehr G. Holmes of Worcester, previous to leaving for Hawaii last month.

Noble Ayton F. Smith, News Editor of The Evening Gazette, Worcester, Mass., attended the American Legion National Convention in New York. Noble Smith stopped at the St. Regis.

Noble C. Vernon Inett, Alderman-at-large in Worcester, was unopposed for renomination on the Republican ticket this fall. Noble Inett, an executive at the Whittall Associates, rug manufacturers, is noted as a song leader, being justly famed in business, fraternal and political circles for his popular rendition of "Alouette." Vern is a member of the Kiwanis International Committee on Music, covering the United States and Canada.

Noble Ralph A. Robbins, who has been ill most of the summer, is reported to be well on the way to recovery. Noble Robert P. Adams, Senior Past President and Treasurer of the Worcester County Shrine Club has visited Ralph a number of times.

Noble Andrew G. Aldrin has taken over his new duties as Assistant Principal of the South High School.

Noble Chester C. Merryfield was recently installed High Priest of Worcester Royal Arch Chapter at colorful ceremonies in the Worcester Masonic Temple. Noble Arthur E. Brown was installed Royal Arch Captain and Noble Almon S. Farr was installed Master of the Veil.

THE PRAYER RUG

By NOBLE J. HOWARD MACAULEY

THE DEGREE Staff is again assembled for what seems to be a very active and progressive year. The first meeting called by Asst. Director Perkins, Friday evening, September 10, brought out all the regulars, and many matters of business were discussed. As usual all members had very definite opinions on all questions brought before the meeting. The final vote in each instance being unanimous. The program for the year as outlined by our Asst. Director forecasts much traveling and interesting visits with Nobles of other Temples.

On Sunday, September 26, the Staff, at the invitation of the Southeastern Shrine Club, attended, in a body, their Annual Clam Bake, held in a beautiful grove a short distance from New Bedford. Those fellows are certainly wonderful hosts, and our day was most enjoyable, although rather busy for a Sunday.

Aleppo didn't do so good athletically, Nobles Maintien and Abbott reached the finals in the Horse Shoe games but went down in defeat at the hands of a couple of lucky guys that kept their own score. Noble Chandler says that if both our men had been throwing their shoes in the same direction victory would have been assured but it was impossible inasmuch as Maintien was throwing against Abbott's wind and vise versa, etc.

At base-ball we had no chance, as the umpire, Past Noble Hambro openly accepted a bribe from the opposition and sold us out before the game started. He rode back on the same buss with us too, but being tired he didn't care whether we spoke to him or not.

SOUTH SHORE NEWS

By NOBLE GEORGE A. RHODES

QUINCY Commandery, K. T., is off for another year with W. Roy Dawes as commander. He is fortunate in having a wife who is also interested in fraternal and club work. She was one of the committee that put across the Templar benefit whist so successfully.

South Shore Commandery, K. T., has that live-wire Noble A. Kenneth Martin for its commander. He is one of those go-getters. William Morganstern is generalissimo and Atwood Hunt, captain general. They had a grand and glorious night for installation.

As I wander through the various lodges—Boston Post says 62—but they missed a few, I find many a Noble and they never fail to greet one. Undoubtedly Aleppo has a wonderful bunch of men. In New York, this summer we met L. S. Schell who occasionally visits Aleppo. He is number 23 of Cyprus Temple in Albany. A Kiwanian and speaker on many subjects. That day in the Oneonta, N. Y., club he told of the Susquehanna river's meandering across three states.

The lodges are going now and will hit a fast pace in October. Nearly all the Masonic bodies have candidates. Rt. Wor. Everett E. Weatherbee spreads his visitations over October and November. Rt. Wor. Charles Worrick, of the 27th, puts them all in the month of October.

Theodore Roosevelt Lodge, A. F. & A. M., had a Past Masters' Night with practically every man in the station he had in 1924, when Frank L. Cushing was master. Elections in most the Masonic lodges are over and the new Masters are in action. J. Frederick Price went in Orphans Hope Lodge in Weymouth for a second term. His son is Senior Warden. Noble Price has a jewel as a past officer in all the orders in Masonic Temple, East Weymouth. Pentalpha Royal Arch Chapter, Temple Council, R. & S. M., South Shore Commandery, K. T., Mayflower Chapter of the Eastern Star and now Orphans Hope Lodge. He should be drafted for Dad in the Rainbow and complete the list. Possibly he will be after his term as Master.

DAUGHTERS OF THE NILE

OPPELA Temple No. 50 has had a very interesting trip through the Schrafft's candy plant in Charlestown; a very delightful luncheon and afternoon of cards with Mrs. E. J. Rich at her Brookline home, and an enjoyable day with her at her summer camp on the Cape.

Another outing was held at the summer home of Mrs. L. W. Overacker at Sconticut Neck; a very fine afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Ward, following a most delicious luncheon.

Mrs. Florence K. Lee, Supreme Queen of the Supreme Temple, D. of the N., will pay Oppela Temple an official visit from October 4 to 7 inclusive, with the afternoon of the 6th for the Official Inspection.

Oppela Temple has again been honored by the appointment of Miss Ina Caroline Browne, Queen, as a Supreme Deputy Organizer for three cities in Maine and one in the State of Pennsylvania.
